

GammTech Corporation Names Mark Legac

Vice President of Sales and Marketing

PALMETTO, FL, November 7th, 2011- GammTech Corporation, designers, manufacturers, and rebuilders of stacking, conveying, and trimming equipment for the commercial printing and newspaper industries, has named Mark Legac as the Vice President of Sales and Marketing. Legac, who most recently held the position of V.P. of Sales and Marketing at RIMA-SYSTEM, will be responsible for continuing to grow GammTech's market share, for managing the expansion of its sales and distribution network, and for assisting in product development initiatives. Legac managed and developed the Sales and Marketing departments at both Gammerler Corporation and RIMA-SYSTEM prior to coming to GammTech.

"We have seen a significant increase in project activity and subsequent orders at GammTech in 2011, and we fully expect this trend to continue as the economy improves", said CEO Gunter Gammerler. "Our quick response, customer-focused business model really seems to have captured some industry attention, and with this upturn in our business, the time was right for Mark to come on board to help us manage this growth."

"Mark and I have known each other and worked together for almost 20 years", he added, "and so this addition to our GammTech team was a natural fit. Mark's industry knowledge and market familiarity will be a terrific benefit to GammTech as well as our customers."

Legac lives in Bradenton, Florida with his wife and 2 children.
